President's Message**

Warm Winter greetings to my quilting family!

I wish you all a Merry Christmas, a Joyful Holiday season and happy closing of this busy year!

Our family has been blessed with the birth of our grandson, Taylor!

Here's our family before thanksgiving dinner, andat 3 in the morning we welcomed a new little turkey!

This Grammy has not had much quilting time recently!

Thank you all for the incredible work of your hearts and hands this past year. The charitable giving of our guild is recognized throughout the community and each of you are part of bringing Joy to the lives of our neighbors.

THE LAST 2017 PROGRAM

December 4 and 6, 2017: Holiday Parties. Wendy Seals is the go-to person organizing the daytime holiday party on Wednesday, December 6. There will be a fabric exchange game so bring a new 1/2 yard of fabric, wrap it pretty, and play the game! A*N*D* bring your favorite dish to “wow” us! On the Monday, December 4, party there will also be a fabric exchange game so bring a new 1/2 yard of fabric, and play the game. Bring your favorite dish to share.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS 2018

January 8 and 10, 2018: (Note the dates) Darlene Miller, an AZ Quilt Guild Traveling Teacher, will present two lectures. On Monday, January 8, the lecture will cover, “How to select the Best Quilting Design for your Quilt.” This will be a unique and fun concept to explore. On Wednesday, January 10, the lecture will concentrate on “Fabric Preparation and Accurate Cutting.” Your quilts will be a long- arm quilter delight when prepared with these few techniques.

February 5 and 7, 2018: Dusty and Stephanie Farrell of Country Stitching’ from Cambridge Springs, PA, will present a lecture on “New Tools, Rulers and Templates for Home Quilting” with trunk show and “The Fun of Quilting and Long Arming “ with trunk show. Also they will have templates and rulers for sale. Check out the website at: www.cscountrystitchin.com.

March 5 and 7, 2018: Mathew and Heidi Pridemore of the Whimsical Workshop in Gilbert, AZ, will present two different programs. On Monday, March 5, she will present, “How Do We Come Up with These Ideas”? It is about how they got started in the fabric industry with a behind the scenes look at how our industry works. On Wednesday, March 7, the second lecture is, “A Few of My Favorite Things”, which covers favorite tools, tips for quilting and ideas about setting up your studio. Check out their website at: www.thewhimsicalworkshop.com.

April 2 and 4, 2018: Amazing Quilts by Grace. Grace Errea will present two different lectures and trunk shows: “Using Value for Design”, and “Steps to Create a Quilt”, which highlight her Fiber Art skills. “Using Value” will discuss how to use and see value to create amazing, successful quilt pieces. “Steps to Create” will share Grace’s tips and techniques to consider so you may create beautiful quilts. Check out her website: at: www.amazingquiltsbygrace.com

LAST WORKSHOPS 2017

December 12, Tuesday: Felted Dryer Balls with Lisa Thompson Mountain Alpacas. Cost is $10. Looking for that last minute handmade gift? Consider eco-friendly wool dryer balls. Join us for a morning, 9 am –12 noon learning to make dryer balls and getting to know her animals. Workshop will be at the Thompson Mountain Alpaca Ranch in Hereford/Palominas. Directions provided upon sign up.

To Be Announced: Cynthia Hatch will offer the third and final class on how to make and decorate your very own temari balls. During this class you will learn two more stitches so you can make a more complex and beautiful Temari ball. The pattern for class three is Red Hot Star; check out the pattern at www.japanesetemari.com/freepatterns/redhotstar/redhotstarpattern.htm. Class will be 9 am –12 noon. To get a head start, have your simple 10 guidelines marked and tacked down. Class two will cost $15 and you will bring all your own materials to include our own mari ball.

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS 2018

January 9, 2018: Darlene Miller will walk us in circles with her class on Radiant Suns. Your fabric selection will make each quilt unique while expanding your comfort zone with circles!! Now is your chance! Learn an easy no- pin technique to create beautiful smooth, curved seams and blocks. No experience necessary and easy for beginners as well. You will be surprised at what you can create. With your choice of color and fabrics you can have suns radiating or simply an array of beautiful colors. Class time will be 9 am-3 pm. Class and pattern cost: $38; optional template available for $27. To have template available in class, place your order for a template NLT 6 Dec 2017.

February 6, 2018: Dusty and Stephanie Farrell will offer multiple potential classes 9 am-12 noon. Dusty is available to present a class on longarm techniques, while Stephanie can present a morning class on quilting with your home, domestic machine. Number and type of classes will depend on interest. Cost $25 per person. Quilters will be able to sample Dusty's rulers and template during all classes. Check out their website and YouTube at: www.stores.cscountrystitchin.com/dusty-farrell-longarm-classes-1. Or email Eileen or Nas about which classes and what times that interest you.

- If interested, contact Eileen at 520-642-6674 or straycatz2@vtc.net
- All classes must be paid in advance
- Supplies list and pictures posted on the Programs and Workshops tab on HSQG website

More details regarding future Programs and Workshop information are available on our HSQG Website under the Programs and Workshops tab: http://www.hummingbirdquiltguild.com/HSQG Workshops.html.

Doris Wells submitted this poster from Valley Quilters Guild; Valley Quilters Guild will reciprocate by inserting our "Quilts of the Huachucas" poster in theirs.

Thanks to Ruth Akins and Merrie Haynes (pictured here) and all ladies who volunteered their time to sell raffle tickets at the Tucson Quilt and Craft Show (formerly the Rusty Barn) in November.

Please feel free to submit articles, suggestions, patterns, or want ads to buy or sell anything quilt related. We do not promise publication of all submitted items. We will, however, endeavor to publish all items that are applicable to the Guild's charter within a reasonable time frame. All items must be written in an e-mail or on paper. The editor cannot take responsibility for verbal requests. Request deadline is the 20th of the month. Please send all contributions to the Newsletter Editor.
